H) Read this passage carefully. Then answer the questions that follow.

(5x 1m)

Su Lin and Su Mei were glad that Grandmother came to visit them in September, during the Mid-Autumn Festival. Grandmother told them that this Festival was also known as the Mooncake Festival or the Lantern Festival. On this day, people ate mooncakes and looked at the moon shining brightly. Children carried lighted lanterns.

The girls begged their mother to buy them lanterns. Mother bought each girl a beautiful star-shaped lantern. The girls wanted to carry their lanterns immediately. Grandmother laughed and told them to wait till after dinner.

That night, they ate mooncakes and carried their lighted lanterns. They walked all around the neighbourhood with many friends. They had an enjoyable time.

(Go to page 14)
