Section I: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions which follow.

There was once a lion who was too lazy to hunt for his food. He pretended to be very sick and announced to all the animals that he was going to die soon.

"Please," he said, "come visit me in my cave and bid me goodbye."

The lion looked so weak and helpless that the animals felt sorry for him. One by one, the visitors came. One by one, the lion ate them up!

When the fox arrived to pay his last respects, he stopped in front of the entrance of the cave and looked closely at the ground.

"Come in quickly. I am dying!" cried the sly lion, impatiently.

"No," said the fox, who was equally clever, "You'll not have me for a visitor, though you moan and pout. While I see many footprints of animals going into your cave, I don't see any footprints of animals leaving the cave!"

51. Why did the lion not hunt for his food?

52. How did the lion trick the animals to his cave?

53. Why did the animals visit the lion?

54. What happened to the animals who visited the lion?

55. Why was the fox not tricked by the lion?
