Section I: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions which follow.

Once, there lived a princess named Emily. She was the only daughter of a powerful king. She was a beautiful girl with big eyes, long hair and a small nose.

Princess Emily had many things that she had asked for. She had ten maids to look after her, a room full of toys to play with and three ponies to ride on, but still she was not happy. There was one thing she did not have - a friend to play with. She felt lonely.

One day, while taking a walk in her garden, Princess Emily heard a voice call out to her. She turned around and saw a little fairy at the side of the pond. "Little Princess," the fairy said, "I hear you are lonely. Do you need a friend?"

The princess nodded. The fairy said a few magic words and suddenly a little boy appeared before them. "Call me Dan!" the little boy told the princess. He took her hand and they started playing hide-and-seek in the garden. From that day, the princess was not lonely anymore for she had made a good friend.

51. How many daughters did the king have?

52. Name two things that Princess Emily had.

53. Why did Princess Emily want a friend to play with?

54. What was the name of the little boy who appeared in front of the princess?

55. Why was the princess not lonely in the end?
