(C) COMPREHENSION

Read the passage carefully.

When Ryan woke up, he looked at the clock on the wall. It was already seven 'o' clock! Ryan knew he was going to be late for school. He had slept late the previous night as he was playing video games. He jumped out of bed, brushed his teeth and changed into his uniform.

Ryan rushed out to the living room and picked up his schoolbag. There was no time for breakfast. He rushed all the way to school and was glad that he had made it on time for the morning assembly.

Ryan's stomach started growling as he felt very hungry. He was looking forward to recess when he realised that he had forgotten to bring his pocket money in the rush that morning. After that incident, Ryan made sure that he slept early and was ready for school every day.

Choose the correct answer and write its correct letter in the brackets.
