Before they went into the mall, their mother warned, "Children, stay close, or else you may get lost."

Tom held tight to his sister's hand and followed their mother into the mall. As they had missed breakfast that morning, their mother took them to the food court level first. They were lucky and found a table quickly as a family had just finished their meal. Tom and his sister went to the roast chicken stall. The stall was very crowded so they stood in the queue. Their turn came after a while. They both ordered some chicken, a bowl of soup and two plates of rice. They returned with their food to the table where their mother was waiting for them.
