Read the passage carefully.

There once lived a king, who loved to hunt. He would bring his bow and arrow into the forest to hunt for animals. The king would walk deep into the forest and when he saw an animal, he would pull back on his bow and sent an arrow flying towards the animal.

The king would laugh and walk off to find the next animal. The king came to a river where he saw a deer having a drink. He hid behind a bush, readying his arrow. The deer saw the king and it spoke, "Spare me, great king. I shall be forever grateful." The king laughed at the deer. The king wanted the deer for himself. He pulled on his bow. As the king did that, he tripped on a stone, slipped and fell into the river. The king struggled in the water and called for help. The deer ran forward and used his huge antlers to scoop the king out of the river,

"You have saved me, Deer!" exclaimed the king. "I will spare your life and I promise not to hunt for any other animals in this forest from now on." The deer bowed to the king and pranced off into the forest.
