Everyone was fast asleep except for Joshua. He had been watching an exciting movie for the past hour. Feeling thirsty, he reached out for his mug but there was not a single drop of water left. He decided to go to the kitchen. Joshua paused his movie, then quietly opened his door and tiptoed out of his bedroom.

Suddenly, Joshua heard the sound of glass shatter. In shock, he did not dare to move an inch. He was sure that no one would be awake at that hour. Quickly, he grabbed the empty vase on the dining table. When he was about to reach the kitchen, the movie scene where the burglar was caught red-handed instantly appeared in his mind. "Ah ha! I caught you!" he cried out as he turned on the kitchen lights.

To his surprise, there was no one in sight. Joshua wondered how the glass pieces had landed on the floor. Looking carefully, he spotted something furry behind the oven. Joshua moved a few steps forward to take a closer look. He let out a scream and jumped backwards upon seeing a brown rat scampering in his direction.
