Section 3: Comprehension (15 marks)

A. Read the passage carefully.

Do you know that the lion belongs to the cat family? It looks very magnificent with its long, hairy mane. ~~Almost every animal is fearful of the lion due to its loud roar and great strength.~~ It is able to jump to a great height even with a prey in its mouth!

The lion is found in Africa and India. ~~Its habitat is tall grassy areas with streams nearby.~~ The lion catches its prey by springing on them. It stalks and hunts animals such as zebras and buffaloes. Sometimes a lion urinates at certain places to tell other lions that these places belong to it. ~~The smell of the urine will warn other lions that it is nearby and that they should stay away.~~

No animal dares to go after the lion. It is no wonder that the lion is known as the "King of the Forest"!

B) Read the passage carefully.

Adam and Nani were waiting for the lift. They met their neighbour, Uncle Raj, who was a painter. He had gone to the children's house the week before to paint it as the children's family were preparing for the upcoming Hari Raya Puasa.

"Good morning, Uncle Raj," Adam and Nani greeted him.

"Hello, children," Uncle Raj replied and the three of them began chatting while waiting for the lift. It was especially slow that morning.

Moments later, the lift reached the ground floor. They went in and Adam pressed the button for the ninth floor. They had to walk up one floor to get home. The lift slowly made its way up.

All of a sudden, the lights flickered and it was pitch-dark. The lift had stopped moving! Nani started to cry.

"Don't worry, Nani," Uncle Raj said as he groped for the alarm bell. The alarm went off immediately. "Someone will be here to rescue us soon."

Adam patted Nani on her back and held her hand to console her. Nani tried to be brave and quietened down.

About twenty minutes later, the lift repairman arrived to rescue them. Nani was glad that their ordeal was over.
