"Screech!"

Tom was on his way to work when he heard a loud screeching sound. He turned around to see an old vehicle coming to a halt. As it was a cold and foggy morning, Tom squinted to see who was behind the wheel. The vehicle was a distance away and he could only see the figure of an old lady. She seemed to have trouble with her old car. Walking nearer to the vehicle, Tom realised that the old lady lived in his neighbourhood.

The old lady turned the key again but the engine refused to start. "Can I help?" Tom asked kindly.

"Thank you, young man," she said. After a few tries, the engine finally started. By then, Tom was shivering in the cold.

Looking at Tom, the lady said, "I don't have much to offer but please have a cup of hot chocolate in this cold winter." She poured a cup from her flask. Tom thanked the lady before saying goodbye.

25. Why was Tom unable to see the driver clearly?

26. Why did the old lady offer Tom a cup of hot chocolate?

27. Which word in the passage has the same meaning as "problem"?
