Section D - Comprehension Open-ended (3 x 2 marks)

Read the passage below carefully. Your answers must be based on the passage.

Once, a man was sitting under a cherry tree in a field, waiting for some cherries to fall. Suddenly, a cherry fell from the tree and landed next to him. He did not reach for the fruit but waited for someone to pass by. Soon, he saw a farmer walking in the distance.

"Hey there, stop!" the man shouted at the farmer.

"That poor man might be ill. He will need my help," the farmer thought and walked quickly across the field towards the man.

"How can I help?" the farmer asked.

"A cherry has fallen next to me. Please put it into my mouth," the man replied.

"I walked all the way across the field to you and this is the only reason you called for me?" the farmer said and stormed off.

The man called after the farmer, "You're very lazy! All you have to do is to put the cherry into my mouth!"
