E) Comprehension (MCQ)

Read the passage below. Choose the most suitable answer and write its number in the brackets provided. (5 marks)

Breakfast is the most important meal of the day. Children who eat breakfast regularly do better in tests.

Some children skip breakfast because they sleep too late or because they think it is a way to stay thin. But skipping breakfast does not help people maintain a healthy diet. In fact, someone who skips breakfast tends to eat more calories throughout the day.

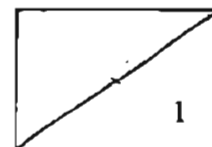

Many people think eating breakfast means having a big meal with eggs and bacon, but that is not true! There are all sorts of things you can eat for breakfast, such as cereal, a piece of toast or even some fruit. Breakfast is a great way to get servings from the five food groups. For example, a bagel with applesauce and a glass of milk covers three different food groups: Grains, fruits and dairy.

Breakfast is also a great time to sit down with your family and talk. You can find out what is going on with your parents' day, as well as talk about your own day. Even if it is only for a few minutes, it is a nice way to start the morning.

41. To maintain a healthy diet, one should _____.

- (1) skip breakfast
- (2) eat eggs and bacon
- (3) eat more during the day
- (4) eat servings of the different food groups

42. Children skip breakfast because they _____.

- (1) sleep early
- (2) fear getting fat
- (3) believe that it is unhealthy
- (4) have nothing suitable to eat

43. What is a misunderstanding that most people have towards breakfast?

- (1) Breakfast is a difficult meal to prepare.
- (2) A person needs to have a heavy breakfast.
- (3) A person can only have bacon and eggs for breakfast.
- (4) Breakfast is a great way to get all the servings of the five food groups.

44. The writer recommends that children can have _____ for breakfast.

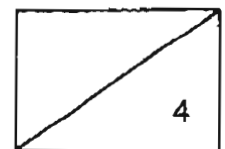

- (1) fruit and toast
- (2) cereal and ice-cream
- (3) bacon and french fries
- (4) cold pizza and fried chicken

()

45. One advantage of having breakfast is that _____.

- (1) it is a good diet plan
- (2) you will not get hungry easily
- (3) it encourages communication within the family
- (4) it provides you with all the servings of the five food groups

F) Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow. Write your answer in complete sentences. (10 marks)

The land of Crestalia was divided into two kingdoms. There was Lower Crestalia, which no one knew or cared much about and there was Upper Crestalia, home to King Adolph, Queen Frida, and their only child, Prince Ralph.

The King cared little for ruling the land. He left that to the Queen whose main interest was her jewellery collection. She loved every kind of precious gem – except one.

“Opals! Yuck! I can’t bear them,” she said. “A gypsy once told me that an opal would change my life. I like my life the way it is, thank you.”

So the Queen continued thinking about gems. The more the Queen thought about gems, the more she wanted to own them all. Then one day while she was admiring a ruby, Prince Ralph entered his mother’s bedchamber.

“Mother, there is something on my mind,” he said.

“What is it?” she asked.

She was very fond of her son as long as he did not disturb her gem collection.

“I want to get married,” he declared.

The Queen paled. She thought about how much a royal wedding would cost. And, before that, the Prince might even want to have one of her gems, perhaps a diamond, for an engagement ring.

Answer the following questions. Write your answers in complete sentences.

46-47) Where did the royalty live?

48-49) What was the Queen's main interest?

50-51) What were the Queen's views about opals?

51-52) Why did Prince Ralph enter his mother's bedchamber?

53-54) Why did the Queen look pale?
