One day, Tim did not turn up for work. Mr Matthew, the owner of the circus, visited Tim at Changi Hospital.

Tim told him what had happened the previous day. It was raining heavily. Suddenly, he slipped and fell into a big drain. He could not get up and walk on his own. Two kind men helped him up and took him to the hospital.

During his stay at the hospital, Tim felt bored. His foot was much better but the doctor told him that he could not go home yet. That evening, Tim visited the children's ward. There were many sick children there. Some were crying.

"I have an idea!" Tim thought to himself.

He went back to his room and slipped into his clown suit. He then made his way back to the children's ward. "Look! A clown is coming!" the children shouted excitedly when he saw him.

Section L: Comprehension Open-ended (10 marks)

Read the passage below carefully. Then answer the questions in complete sentences.

Jack loved to read books. He had many books on his shelves. His favourite book was one about dragons.

One night, Jack fell asleep after reading his favourite book. He dreamt he was a dragon. He was not alone. He was in a cave with other dragons. They were eating some rocks. It was a special kind of rock.

"Dragons must eat this rock to make fire when they breathe out," the leader of the dragons told Jack. Jack swallowed some of the rocks and breathed out. At first, nothing happened. Then, he felt his nostrils getting hot. He breathed out again harder. This time, fire shot out of his nose. Jack was delighted.

Suddenly, there was the sound of thunder. Jack woke up with a start. He sat up in his bed and looked around at all the books in his room. It was only a dream.

Jack stood in front of the mirror and breathed out. He wanted to make sure he had not turned into a dragon.

ALL ANSWERS MUST BE IN COMPLETE SENTENCES.

51. What was Jack's favourite book about?

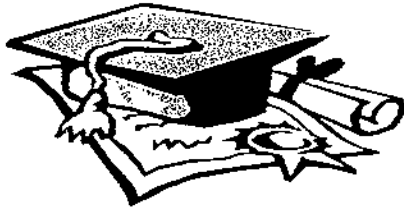

52. Where were the dragons found?

53. What woke Jack up?

54. Which word in the passage tells us that Jack was 'happy'?

55. Why did Jack look at the mirror and breathe out?
