Section F: Comprehension-MCQ (5 X 1) marks

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions correctly.

Tim is seven years old. His hobby is collecting stickers. His father buys sticker books for him. Whenever his relatives come to visit his family, they bring stickers for Tim.

Tim arranges his stickers in groups. He has stickers of animals, vehicles and clothing in his collection. He likes the animal stickers best. He uses one full sticker book to keep all his animal stickers. He is just starting on his second book of animal stickers. Very soon, he will need a third one. All the other groups of stickers fit into another sticker book.

Sometimes, Tim receives stickers that do not belong to these groups. He keeps them and exchanges them with his classmates who also have the same hobby. He does not like food stickers and cartoon stickers but his classmate, Pam, likes them. Another classmate, John, likes dinosaur stickers and alien stickers.

Tim is proud of his collection and hopes that his school will have a sticker exhibition at the end of the year.

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions correctly.

Mr Jolly was a happy giant. Every day, he visited the people who stayed in Tiny Town. He always brought a big bag of sweets for them. The people were always happy to see him.

One day, when Mr Jolly arrived at Tiny Town, nobody was on the streets. He sang his happy tune but still no one came out to meet him.

"This is strange! They must be afraid!" he said to himself.

Just then, he heard a loud roar from behind! It was Ugly Dragon! It had huge lumps on the body and it breathed out fire. Mr Jolly threw his bag of sweets at Ugly Dragon. It hit the dragon's eyes. Ugly Dragon let out a loud groan and flew away quickly. The people could hear its wings flap.

The people came out to the streets and cheered loudly. Ugly Dragon could not hurt them anymore. Mr Jolly laughed and sang his happy tune again. The people laughed and sang with him.
