Section D: Comprehension (5 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions. Your answers must be based on the passage.

There was an apple tree in Bala's garden. Bala enjoyed eating the sweet apples. As years passed, some birds and bees built their homes on the tree.

One day, Bala decided to chop down the tree to make some chairs and a table. He was going to sell them to make some money. Some squirrels which were playing nearby saw what Bala was doing. They begged him to stop. However, he ignored them.

Suddenly, some honey from the beehive dropped onto Bala's hand. He smiled after tasting it. When a swarm of bees saw Bala smile, they said, "We promise to give you some of our honey every day if you save our home." Bala agreed immediately. The birds cheered when they heard the good news.
