Section F: Reading Comprehension

Read the passage carefully. Answer the questions that follow.

"Don't do that!" shouted John to his younger brother, Daniel.

"But I want to taste the honey in the hive," said Daniel stubbornly as he threw some stones at the hive hanging from a branch of a tree in their backyard. He wanted the hive to fall to the ground.

"If you do that, you will get stung by the bees in the hive," warned John.

"Come, let's finish our game of marbles. It will be lunch time soon and Mum will be looking for us."

"Boys! Come and have your lunch!" shouted Mum from the kitchen. When there was no response, she peeked out of the door to see what the boys were up to. To her horror, she saw Daniel being stung by bees.

She dashed out of the kitchen and helped John drag Daniel into the kitchen. Then she closed the door and windows.

Daniel was in tears but he had learnt a valuable lesson not to be mischievous.

Tick the correct answer. ( 2 x 1 mark )
